ABOUT THE NATIONAL CONGRESS OF BLACK WOMEN (NCBW-SGVC)

OUR MISSION:

- ◆ To develop and advocate public policy positions at every level of government that impact Black women, their families and communities.
- ◆ To encourage Black women to seek elective and appointive offices at all levels of government.
- ◆ To encourage Black women to engage in political education, voter registration, forums and seminars.
- ◆ To engage in research on critical issues uniquely affecting the quality of life of Black women, their families and communities.
- ◆ To educate youth on the responsibilities of good citizenship and the importance of engaging the political process.
- ◆ To provide opportunities for internships and other learning experiences at the local, state, national and global levels.

OUR STORY:

The Annual Fundraiser aims to acknowledge those individuals, institutions, and companies in the region that have dedicated their efforts to improving the quality of life and championing causes that positively impact diverse communities. The event is the primary funding source for sustaining program initiatives. This event draws a guest list of our most esteemed community leaders and business associates while raising awareness in support of NCBW-SGVC community service programs.

The National Congress of Black Women, Inc., San Gabriel Valley Chapter (NCBW) is a 501(c) (3) non-profit non-partisan organization dedicated to the mission of the organization. We serve the communities of the San Gabriel Valley and its surrounding areas by engaging and empowering African American families through awareness and understanding of how to better serve diverse communities through educational and cultural development. SGVC is comprised of members throughout the San Gabriel Valley, Pasadena/Altadena and bordering states.

The NCBW-SGVC has made significant strides since its inception and was recognized in 2016 for outstanding contributions to foster children and youth by All Saints Church Foster Care Project.

The proceeds from the Annual Fundraiser Event provides sustainability for the ongoing program initiatives and services rendered for youth projects and the community at-large. NCBW-SGVC would like your company to join other organizations by becoming a sponsor and supporting this year's event. There are five (5) levels of sponsorships available, Bessie Smith, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Bessie Coleman, Georgiana Simpson, and Violette N. Anderson, or a donation of any amount of your choice. Please refer to the enclosed sponsorship form for costs and descriptions pertaining to each sponsorship level.
